Sirs:

I wish to record my incontrovertible rejection of the recent policy of creating a centralized data base to store and make available to many agencies and businesses the medical records of all the citizens of the U.S and their children This may be considered a means of individual privacy by some with a sugar coated title to confuse people. I do not accept this characterization, period. Please record my objection to this completely outrageous plan to regiment and control the citizens of this great country.

A protesting citizen,

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "Charles G. Peters". The signature is written in a cursive, flowing style.

Charles G. Peters
